Importance: High

Hi all,

We have received the first round of budget narrative edits and comments from Carol Terris. OCFO is looking for responses by COB today. Please review your office's attached narratives and provide clearance or responses to the comments by COB. Please do not focus on the comments on the Explanation of Change, I am working with OCFO for further direction on the format as their comments are counter the guidance they provided.

We should expect the next round of narratives soon with a similar turnaround.

Thank you,
Greg

Gregory Scott
